THIS CERTIFIED TRANSLATION IS ISSUED IN BOGOTÁ D.C. physically, in which case the approval of an ordinary majority shall suffice, without implying an amendment to the bylaws. In this case, each shareholder shall receive a certificate representing his shares, unless he prefers several certificates for several partial amounts of the total amount that belong to him. The contents and characteristics of the certificates shall be subject to relevant legal provisions. If the price of the shares has not been fully paid for, the Company may only issue provisional certificates.

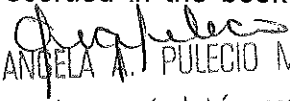

PARAGRAPH ONE: APPLICABLE REGULATIONS: Except as otherwise provided herein, the circulation, liens and any other matters related to dematerialized shares shall be governed by the provisions applicable to dematerialized securities, as well as by any other current or subsequent regulation that may complement, modify or supplement them.

PARAGRAPH TWO. SHAREHOLDERS DEFAULT: In the event a shareholder is in default of payment of the shares subscribed by the same, he may not exercise the political and economic rights inherent thereto, without prejudice of the provisions of Article 150 of the Code of Commerce. For such effect, the Company directly, or through the specialized entity upon which it has delegated this function, shall record any payments made and balances outstanding.

PARAGRAPH THREE: PROCEDURE FOR ENFORCEMENT AGAINST DEFAULT DEBTORS: The corresponding Issuance and Placement Rules may regulate the procedure for enforcement of encumbrances and the application of mechanisms established by Article 397 of the Code of Commerce to any shareholder who is in default in the payment of his shares.

ARTICLE TWELVE: ATTACHED SHARES OR SHARES UNDER LITIGATION: The attachment shall be entered in the shareholder register under the terms of Article 415 of the Code of Commerce. Shares whose ownership is under litigation cannot be disposed of without permission from the judge in charge of the respective proceedings. Authorization from the plaintiff is also required to transfer attached shares. Consequently, the Company shall abstain from recording any transfer or lien from the date on which the judge has reported the attachment or serviced the lawsuit, as the case may be. Attachment of shares shall cover the corresponding dividend, and may be limited only to such dividend. In this event, the attachment shall be conducted by order of the judge authorizing the Company to retain and place the respective amounts at his disposal.

PARAGRAPH ONE: In case of theft of a registered certificate, the Company shall replace it and provide a duplicate to the owner recorded in the book "Register and Liens of Shares". The shareholder must support the fact to the Board of Directors, and in any event, he must submit an authenticated copy of the respective criminal report. When a shareholder requests a duplicate due to loss of a certificate, he shall submit the guarantee required by the Board of Directors. Should the lost certificate appear, its holder shall return the duplicate to the Company, and the Board of Directors shall destroy it and shall record this fact in the minutes of the corresponding meeting. When a duplicate is requested because of deterioration of the original, the holder must deliver the respective certificate for the Company to cancel it.

PARAGRAPH TWO. Pledged Shares. The pledge shall be legalized through its recording on the book of "Register and Liens of Shares", and it shall not give the creditor the rights inherent to the capacity of shareholder, except by virtue of explicit covenant or agreement. The document with such covenant is sufficient to prove the creditor's rights.

PARAGRAPH THREE: In the case of usufruct duly reported to the Company, the Company shall recognize all the rights derived from the shares to the beneficiary except those rights inherent to the bare ownership, such as the right to convey them and to subscribe new issues of shares, including those to be distributed as stock dividends, which correspond to the bare owner, except as otherwise provided.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN: EQUAL RIGHTS: ISA recognizes the importance of its shareholders and investors. Accordingly, and with a sense of social responsibility, it seeks not only the return of their investment and the increase of the Company value but also to guarantee the full exercise of their rights and the strict compliance of their duties. The Company shall give same treatment regarding petitions, claims and information, to its investors and shareholders, regardless of the value of their investment or the number of shares represented by them.

ARTICLE FOURTEEN: SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS: Without limitation upon any other rights granted by the Law, the Regulations and the Bylaws, shareholders shall be entitled to the following rights: 1) Participate in the discussions of the Shareholders' Meeting and vote thereat. 2) Subject to the provisions of these bylaws and the Law, receive the proportion of the corporate benefits established in the end-of-period balance sheet. 3) Negotiate the shares under the terms of these bylaws. 4) Inspect, at their discretion, within fifteen (15) business days prior to the Shareholders' Meeting, where the end-of-period balance sheet is to be considered, the books and other documents referred to in Articles 446 and 447 of the Code of Commerce. 5) Receive the proportional value of their shares, a portion of the corporate assets, upon liquidation and after payment of the external liabilities of the Company. 6)

Representation before the Company. For any matter, shareholders may have themselves represented by sending document stating the name of the attorney and the extent of the mandate. Powers for representation before the Shareholders' Meeting shall abide by the provisions of Article 184 of the Code of Commerce. 7) Indivisibility of shares. Shares shall be indivisible and, consequently, when for any legal or contractual reason one or several shares belong to a plural number of people, these must appoint a common representative who shall exercise the rights corresponding to their capacity as shareholders. The appointment of the representative shall be made subject to the provisions of Article 378 of the Code of Commerce. 8) Representation of shareholders. There is no restriction whatsoever regarding the shareholders' right to vote. Each shareholder, either an individual or a legal person, may appoint only one main representative to the Shareholders' Meeting, regardless of the number of shares held. The representative of a shareholder cannot fraction the vote of his principal, which means that he is not allowed to vote with one or several shares represented by him in one sense or for certain people, and with another share or shares in a different sense or for other people. But this individuality of vote does not prevent the representative of the vote of several shares from voting in each case by adhering separately to the instructions given by each represented individual or group.

ARTICLE FIFTEEN: RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES: Any dispute that may arise between the Company and the shareholders, between the shareholders and managers, and those regarding challenges to decisions shall be tried to solve first through direct settlement. If an agreement has not been reached within sixty (60) business days, the party raising the dispute may resort to the regular courts or opt for any alternative way of dispute resolution provided by Colombian legislation. Alternative ways of dispute resolution shall be conducted at the Center of Conciliation and Arbitration of the Medellin Chamber of Commerce for Antioquia.

ARTICLE SIXTEEN: NEGOTIATION BETWEEN STATE SHAREHOLDERS AND PRIVATE SHAREHOLDERS: Upon satisfaction of the requirements set forth in the foregoing Article, when a State shareholder intends to dispose of its shares, or a portion thereof, in favor of individuals or legal persons, the provisions of Law 226 of 1995 or any rules amending or superseding the same, shall be applied.

CHAPTER IV: CORPORATE BODIES.
